LOUISVILLE MAN PLEADS GUILTY TO DEALING IN FIREARMS WITHOUT A LICENSE

David L. Huber, United States Attorney for the Western District of Kentucky, and Paul Vido, Special Agent in Charge of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF), Louisville Field Division, jointly announced today that ALEXANDER JACKSON YOUNG, age 26, of 145 Laurie Vallee, Louisville, Kentucky, in Jefferson County, pled guilty to a single count felony Information charging him with violating federal firearm laws.

Young faces maximum potential penalties of 5 years' imprisonment, a $250,000.00 fine, and a 3-year term of supervised release.

According to the written Plea Agreement filed in open court, Young admitted that from in or about and between 2002 and 2004, he engaged in the business of dealing in firearms in Jefferson County and other places in Kentucky. He did so without having first obtained a license to deal in firearms. Young never required the people to whom he sold firearms to complete the required federal forms for the transfer of firearms or requested criminal history checks on those persons.
